

We will tell the Government about the consultation in our application.

The application needs to be submitted to Government by 25th October 2023.

If the Council are successful with the application, the next stage is that the Council would be given the powers to enforce the locations we are suggesting by April 2024.